

Looking for information regarding new Common Core Mathematics?

The following websites will give information on Common Core mathematics as well as explain the 2 programs that we will be piloting in some of our k-2 classrooms for the remainder of this school year. If your child is in one of the “pilot” classes, please look for information specific to that program coming home. That will also include a website for that program with log in information specific to your child.

<http://www.corestandards.org/the-standards/mathematics> (explanation of Common Core Standards- Mathematics)

<http://www.ixl.com/math/> (Great site for math practice at all grades)

<http://www.hmheducation.com/gomath/math-textbooks.php> (Go Math)

<https://www.mheonline.com/mhmymath/> (My Math)